AN INVITATION TO SERVE AS AN ELECTION INSPECTOR

---

We are in need of qualified Election Inspectors for the General Election on November 5, 2019 and future elections.

On Election Day, over two hundred Election Inspectors will be needed to work at Town Halls, Fire Houses, and Community Centers welcoming voters and conducting election processes. There are over one hundred open races for local and county elected positions.

Although it is a long day, it is also very rewarding to help your community. The Sullivan County Board of Elections invites you to get involved and become a vital employee in this fundamental aspect of our democracy and quality of life: The Freedom to Vote.

Our goal is to ensure the best voting experience for registered voters in Sullivan County. Help us reach that goal. Work with us!
